The Kind of a Man Cetywayo Is.

From the English Official Correspondence.

It is no exaggeration to say that his history from the first has been written in characters of blood. I do not refer merely to the long chronicle of his butcheries,—from the slaughter of his brothers and their followers, early in his career, down to the more recent indiscriminate and wholesale destruction of all the unmarried women who attempted to evade his orders, given in a sudden fit of caprice, that they should accept as husbands the elderly unmarried soldiers of his army, the massacre being subsequently extended to all the relatives who took away for burial the exposed corpses of the slaughtered women,—but I would take his character from his own account of himself; it was sent little more than two years ago to the Lieutenant-Governor of Natal, who, on hearing of the massacre of the girls, wrote to remind him of what had very recently passed between him and the representative of the Natal government, Sir T. Shepstone, in the way of promises of more merciful rule on the occasion of his installation as King, expressing a hope that the Lieutenant-Governor might learn from him that the reports which had reached him were incorrect. Cetywayo replied, "Did I ever tell Shepstone? Did he tell the white people I made such an arrangement? Because, if he did, he has deceived them. I do kill, but do not consider yet I have done anything in the way of killing. Why do the white people start at nothing? I have not yet begun. I have yet to kill; it is the custom of our nation, and I shall not depart from it. Why does the Governor of Natal speak to me about my laws? Do I go to Natal and dictate to him about his laws? I shall not agree to any laws or rules from Natal, and, by so doing, throw the great kraal which I govern into the water. My people will not listen unless they are killed; and, while wishing to be friends with the English, I do not agree to give over my people to be governed by the laws sent to me by them. Have I not asked the English government to allow me to wash my spears, since the death of my father Umpandi, and they have kept playing with me all this time, and treating me like a child? Go back and tell the English that I shall now act on my own account, and if they wish me to agree to their laws I shall leave and become a wanderer; but before I go it will be seen, as I shall not go without having acted. Go back and tell the white man this, and let them hear it well. The Governor of Natal and I are equal. He is Governor of Natal, and I am Governor here."

The Daily Republican.

R. K. HAMSHER, J. R. MOSSER.
HAMSHER & MOSSER PUBLISHERS.
DECATUR, ILLINOIS.

MONDAY EVENING, MARCH 10, 1879.

FREQUENT attempts have been made late to burn the city of Columbus, O., and the citizens are much alarmed.

BISMARCK and his bitter enemy, Herr Lasker, had another bitter quarrel in the Reichstag, on Saturday, in consequence of some strictures made by the former upon the Liberals.

FROM Russia comes the pleasing intelligence that the dreaded plague has been mastered in Astrachan, through the prompt and heroic measures adopted by the Government.

THE Greenbackers are an unsophisticated set. They are claiming that Adlai Stevenson, of the Bloomington district, will act with them in the organization of the House, but when they see Adlai trundling himself out of the Democratic ranks it will be good for sore eyes. Mr. Stevenson is about as much of a Greenbacker as the devil is a Methodist. He has twice succeeded in being elected to congress from a Republican district, by means of his ability to perform the two horse act, but we have never yet heard that he was any the less a Democrat. He has not a single sympathy in common with the Greenbackers, he is a thorough-bred Democrat, and according to our understanding, a hard money Democrat at that. In the organization of the House he may be depended on to vote for Randall or Blackburn, or whoever the Democratic caucus may nominate, and the deluded Greenbackers may as well make up their minds that, like the deceived female, they have been "fuled ag'in."

IN the recent election at Decatur one of the candidates received six votes, and out of gratitude to these friends, he proposed to donate to each one a chromo and ten dollars. Up to the present writing 149 have put in a claim, and several hundred are hunting up some one who is willing to vouch for their right to claim the reward. There must have been "Shenanigan" on the part of the Returning Board.—Bloomington Leader.

THE conclusion of the report of the court of inquiry into the conduct of Major Reno at the Indian battle of the Little Big Horn, at the time of the Custer massacre, says that "the conduct of the officers throughout was excellent, and while the subordinates in some instances did more for the safety of the command by brilliant displays of courage than did Major Reno, there was nothing in his conduct which requires animadversion from this court. It is the conclusion of this court, in view of all the facts in the evidence, that no further proceedings are necessary in this case, and it expresses this opinion in compliance with the concluding clause of the order convening the court." The finding of the court is approved by General Sherman and the War Department.

THE latest Democratic programme for the extra session of Congress is as follows: The Democrats are to first pass a bill repealing the laws providing for Supervisors of Election in Southern States. If the President approves their action, the Appropriation bill will then be passed and Congress will adjourn. But should the President veto the bill as proposed, then these measures will be attached to the Appropriation bill, and a starvation policy will be inaugurated and carried out until one side yields. The Democrats say the starvation process will be useful to them, as "supplies will be cut off and 40,000 Federal office-holders thus be prevented from contributing anything to the Ohio campaign this fall." This is all very well, if it works, but the Republicans are a tough people, very "shifty," as they say at the South, and can stand a good deal of Democratic starving—witness Andersonville and Libby.

THE arrest, detention and final discharge from custody of the Manager of the Western Union Telegraph Company at Topeka, because he refused to disclose the secrets in certain telegrams believed to be important in a Legislative bribery case, ought not to be lightly passed over. The Manager claimed that he ought not to produce private telegrams intrusted to his care as an agent of the company, and is sustained in his course not only by the telegraph company but by the legal profession. The February number of the American Law Register, published in Philadelphia, contains an article by Judge Cooley, author of "Cooley's Constitutional Limitations," in which Judge Cooley goes to the fullest extent in declaring that telegraph messages are inviolable in the possession of the telegraph company, and that neither courts nor Legislatures can legally compel their production, to be used as testimony in any case where neither the sender nor receiver is a party. It is time that a decisive precedent should be established.

The Railroads of the World.

A French writer has been carefully collecting the railway statistics of all nations. At the close of 1869, the total railway mileage in the world was 183,982 miles, apportioned as follows: Europe, 89,430 miles, America, 83,420 miles; Asia, 7,689 miles; Australia, 1,924 miles; Africa, 1,519 miles. Total, 183,982.

At that time the United States had but 74,095 miles of railway. But at the close of 1877 the mileage was 79,541, and must now be about 82,000. Other nations are credited as follows: Great Britain, 16,974 miles; France, 13,492 miles; Germany, 17,181 miles, Russia, 11,555; Austria, 10,852 miles; Italy, 4,815 miles; Turkey, 830 miles, India, 6,527 miles, Canada, 4,200 miles; Peru, 960 miles, Argentine Republic, 990 miles; Egypt, 975 miles; Brazil, 836 miles.

Europe has a capital of $10,500,000,000 invested in railways, against $6,000,000,000 for America and all the rest of the world. The railways of Europe in 1876 carried 1,140,000,000 tons of freight, or about 470 passengers to every 100 tons of freight. It is estimated that 4,000,000 rails are required every year to renew the worn out stock on the roads already in operation, besides what are needed to lay down new roads. The average wear of a rail is ten years. The rolling mills of the United States have a capacity of nearly 2,000,000 tons, though our consumption of rails, including imports, is not half that amount.

"The Evening of March 4, 1881."

Philadelphia Ledger's New York Letter.

If straws tell how the wind blows, perhaps the fact is worth mentioning, for the edification of the curious who take an interest in such matters, that elegantly-engraved cards are circulating at the Democratic clubs inviting the holder to a grand ball in Washington city on the evening of March 4, 1881, "in honor of the inauguration of Samuel J. Tilden as President of the United States." The thing, of course, is a joke, and yet it is one of those little trifles that indicate what is passing through the heads of some people, and which are not without a certain significance. However, it is a pretty cheap electioneering device, and we may expect to see it immediately followed by the Republicans, only with the substitution of the name of say General Grant, or Mr. Sherman, or Mr. Conkling, or some other statesman, in place of the old gentleman of Gramercy Park

THOSE democratic editors and orators who in the last campaign wanted to know what Joe Cannon amounted to as a congressman ought to get a copy of the Congressional Record of February 28 and read up the record of the proceedings of that day, in which Mr Cannon appeared as a leading and efficient actor in opposing the Brazilian subsidy, which was killed deader than a door nail. We hope Mr. Cannon has sent a marked copy of that day's proceedings to the democratic editors of this district. By the way, we again call the attention of our readers to the fact that Mr. Cannon's opinions as post-office matters are authority on that subject, and we are impelled to remark that in the event that Grant is elected president in 1880, Hon. J. G. Cannon will be an available man to become a member of the great captain's cabinet as postmaster-general. In the latter event, of course we shall expect a postal-clerkship or something of that sort at a thousand a year. And don't you tell anybody.—Danville Commercial.

Clifford's Febrifuge.—Unfailing, infallible cure for all diseases originating in biliary derangements, caused by the malaria of miasmatic countries. No preparation known possesses an eradicating power over this class of diseases at all comparable to Clifford's Febrifuge.—It is the ne plus ultra of Ague remedies. Sure and safe in its action, its great power in neutralizing malarious influences is only equaled by its harmless action on the body. No disagreeable after effects from this remedy.

JACKSONVILLE, Ill., March 9.—A fire yesterday destroyed a barn on North street belonging to Aaron Phillips, occupied by G. W. Clark. A small boy's carelessness was the cause of the fire.

Mabel Elliot, a winsome little girl about seven years old, daughter of J. S. Magill, United States Express Agent, died this morning from the effect of jumping a rope 500 times in succession.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 9.—Gov. Williams has called an extra session of the Legislature to meet on Wednesday, the 12th inst., as the regular session failed to pass any of the appropriation bills before adjournment on Saturday, which was the last day on which the bill could be legally passed. The regular session will adjourn to morrow, the 10th.

NEW YORK, March 8.—The steamship Gellert, bearing the remains of Bayard Taylor, is expected here Wednesday. Vessels will enter the harbor with flags at half-mast, and after landing, the passengers, officers and crew, in full uniform, will assist in the landing of the remains

WASHINGTON DOTS.

WHAT THE ILLINOIS CONGRESSMEN THINK.

GREAT FIRE AT SPRINGFIELD

DEATH FROM JUMPING THE ROPE.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—William E. Chandler appears as the Samuel among the prophets. In a published letter he vouches for the stalwart Republicanism of President Hayes, predicts impending ruin to the Democracy as the result of persisting in their revolutionary plans, and declares that as a consequence Democratic fatuity and obstinacy will sound the knell of the Democratic party. He refers to an old statement of Murat Halstead that Hayes was liable to become the most radical of Presidents, and confidently asserts that this radicalism is going to manifest itself in a distinct and uncompromising veto of any effort, whether in an appropriation bill or otherwise, to wipe out the safeguards of elections, and predicts that Hayes will unite cordially with the Republicans of every grade in fighting the momentous battle for vital Republican principles which is to be waged without intermission from the 18th of March until November, 1880. Finally, Mr. Chandler has no doubt of the issue of the battle. He believes the extra session will make an end of the Democratic danger The greed of the Democracy will destroy them The devil is in them all, and their fate will be that of the crazy herd of swine.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 9.—A large force of men have been employed since morning clearing away the debris from the rail and puddle mills burned last night, and it is found that the machinery and apparatus are not badly damaged, except the works in the producing house. There was $16,500 insurance on the rail mill and $1,500 on the producing house Of this amount $7,500 is in the Royal and Continental, $2,500 in the American, Philadelphia, $2,500 in the Fire Association, $2,000 in the British America, and smaller amounts in other companies The estimate, telegraphed last night, of $25,000 damage is probably not much in excess. The company will at once rebuild. Indeed, the clearing away of the debris to day was with a view of commencing work on temporary frame buildings to morrow, which, within a few months, are to be replaced by brick buildings. It is expected that these temporary structures can be completed and work resumed at the mills within two weeks, as a large portion of the puddlers and heaters, and other men thrown out of employment by the fire, will assist in the restoration. D. W. Abolt, a carpenter, employed in a building on the mill premises, was struck with a board during the fire, but not believed at the time to be seriously injured. This morning on his return to work, he fell dead. He was a stranger here, but appears to have come from Decatur, and to have friends there, to whom the coroner telegraphed. The mill was running on heavy contracts for the Union Pacific Road, and had turned out 960 tons of rails during last week.

ST. LOUIS, March 8.—William R. Morrison, member of Congress from Illinois, arrived here to-day, and, has expressed himself very freely about the contest for the Speakership of the House. He declares most positively that under no circumstances will he be a candidate himself; that he is opposed to Randall and in favor of a Southern man for that position, in order to test the question whether Southern men can be put into prominent places with safety to the interests of the nation. He regards Mr. Blackburn, of Kentucky, as a brilliant and able man who would make an excellent Speaker.

The Post and Dispatch of this city, published a strong editorial this afternoon against Randall, insisting that no member of Congress from this State, or the West generally, can vote for him without betraying the interests of their people.

Ex-Governor Throckmorton and Mr. Giddings, members from Texas, are also here, en route home, and express the opinion that most of the Texas members and the Southern delegation will vote for Blackburn, and that Randall's defeat is certain.

BOSTON, March 8.—The State Government finds itself in a peculiar dilemma in regard to the execution of Devlin the wife murderer, who is to be hanged on Friday. The death-warrant reads: "To Charles Kimball, our Sheriff of Middlesex County." Sheriff Kimball died yesterday, and the question now is who shall superintend the execution, there being two deputies with equal claims of seniority, one from continuous service, and the other from the earlier date of appointment, although his term has been broken The statutes do not provide for such an emergency, and there is great curiosity to see what will be done. The man's sentence cannot be commuted, the Executive Council having voted last week seven to one to hang him, and a new Sheriff cannot be appointed in time, the law requiring that one week shall elapse between the nomination and the confirmation.

NEWPORT, R. I., March 9.—Gen. W. T. Sherman and wife left this city seriously ill, the former from pneumonia and the latter from consumption

WASAINGTON, March 8.—In the course of a series of interviews on the Presidential question, the Illinois Democratic Congressmen are reported to have expressed the following views:

Robert M. Knapp, Eleventh District, expressed the belief that Tilden is the coming man. He thinks that circumstances point to him as being unquestionably the best man in the nation for the position.

William M. Springer, Twelfth District, thinks the Democratic nomination rests with Thurman, Bayard, Tilden, or Hendricks. As to the investigation of the cipher dispatches, he does not think Mr. Tilden is in the least injured, but, on the other hand, it has been a great help to him. In his opinion, had not the cipher dispatches been investigated. Mr. Tilden's nomination would have been impossible. The investigation brought his nomination within the possibilities. His nomination, it might be said, depends upon how New York goes.

John R. Eden, Fifteenth District, has no matured opinion. Since the publication of the cipher dispatches and the testimony of Mr. Tilden, he thought it was not imporbable that Tilden will be nominated. Mr. Tilden's testimony helped him greatly. His (Eden's) choice was Hendricks.

Sparks, Sixteenth District, says the Democratic nominee must be Thurman. Since the last investigation Mr. Tilden's stock has increased. This feeling, he thought, has gone out toward Mr. Tilden, in the West especially, and makes his strength much greater. Yet he thought the West was solid for Thurman.

Morrison, Seventeenth District, declined to converse, as he did not know anything about the matter, and, moreover, the time for the nomination is too far ahead.

Hartzell, Eighteenth District, is of the opinion that the fight for the Democratic nomination is between Thurman and Hendricks. In the West it looks that way. He declined to express an opinion relative to Mr. Tilden's chances further than to say that future questions might affect him one way or the other.

Richard W. Townshend, Nineteenth District, preferred not to express an opinion as to the probable Democratic nominee He was inclined to think that Tilden will not be nominated, and that he has but a small following in the South or West. The investigation had not affected him in the estimation of Democrats, so far as his integrity is concerned, but sound policy dictates that the nominee should be some other man.

WASHINGTON, March 8. Leading Republicans who have been consulted regarding the coalition between the Greenbackers and Republicans in order to secure, if possible, the organization of the next House, say that no arrangement or bargain will be made, but that the Republicans intend to nominate candidates and vote for them until an election is had.

John G. Thompson, of Ohio, has concluded to be a candidate for re election as Sergeant at Arms of the House. He has been named as the successor of Colonel French, the Sergeant at Arms in the Senate, but has concluded to remain in his present place, where his opportunities to aid Senator Thurman in his candidacy for the Presidency will be greater than if he were an officer of the Senate.

Secretary Evarts is of the opinion that the British authorities will take umbrage at the orders of the Secretary of the Treasury prohibiting the importation of cattle from Great Britain, and retaliatie by a similar order prohibiting the landing of any American cattle at any point in England. It is maintained at the Treasury Department that the shipment of American cattle has already been virtually stopped by the order requiring them to be slaughtered on the docks at Liverpool, and that the prohibitory order now will not work any injury to the cattle trade.

ST. LOUIS, March 9.—Between 1 and 2 o'clock this morning a fire broke out in the wagon shop of Mrs. Henrietta Bausch, on Broadway, in East St. Louis, and owing to their being no fire apparatus and no call being made on the fire department of this city, one brick and five frame buildings were destroyed. The loss is about $10,000. In the second story of the wagon shop where the fire started, which was occupied as a residence by Mrs. Bausch, there were sleeping her three children, by a former marriage, named Charles Guebenback, about sixteen years old, and John and Emma Zeipp, several years younger, and Henry Schoeplerkoetter, a blacksmith, and Mrs. Carolina Borst, who was spending the night with Mrs. Bausch, all of whom were burned, they being unable to escape by reason of a door leading to their apartments being fastened on the outside. Mrs. Bausch also slept in the same house at that time, but she jumped from windows and is so severely injured that she will probably die. At the inquest this afternoon, the testimony elicted pointed so strongly to incendiarism that John Borst, the husband of Cathernia Borst, Andrew Marshall and Thomas Hammond were arrested and locked up.

CHICAGO, March 8.—Several scalpers in railroad tickets were arrested last night at the instance of railroad men and to day, as a retaliatory measure, A. C. Wentworth, of the Michigan Central, W. A. Thrall, of the Northwestern, and others, had warrants issued against them for violating the State law regarding redemption of tickets purchased by bona fide passengers, but unused as yet.

DEAD!

A Serious Outcome of Play.

Our readers will remember an account in Thursday's paper of last week of an injury inflicted upon Leonard Munsell at Lintner Station by the throwing of a harrow tooth at him by Jerry Duncan, and also that both parties in explaining the matter said that they were merely playing. Up to Saturday Munsell continued to improve in his condition, and at that time no one thought that his injuries were dangerous.. This morning Mr. John Ullrich, on whose farm Duncan lives, received the following telegram:

LA PLACE, ILL., March 9, 1879.
MR. JOHN ULLRICH, Decatur—Munsell is dead; Jerry is arrested. Come on first train to-morrow. J. A. MILLER.

From the above it would seem that on Saturday afternoon or night a sudden change took place in Munsell's condition, and that he died yesterday.

This sad ending of the matter will make it a very serious affair for Duncan, and may cause him a good deal of trouble.

Everybody deeply regrets this sad outcome of what both men claimed was merely a playful affair.

As the affair occurred in Piatt county, of course if the case comes to trial it will be at Monticello.

A CARD.

EDITORS REPUBLICAN:—Please give place in your excellent paper to these few lines. I wish to publicly acknowledge the kind assistance rendered me in my sickness by the several members of the Y. M. C. A., and also to thank the following named ladies for the good things they sent me when I was sick: Mrs. J. B. Shellabarger, Mrs. Dr. Bumstead, Mrs. Jas. Haworth, Mrs D. S. Shellabarger, Mrs. Emma Dunham, Miss Nettie Bowers, Miss Annie Kramer; and last, but not least, I wish to acknowledge the kind care and skill of my physician, Dr. S. J. Bumstead. Respectfully,
S. M. LUTZ.

DEATH OF A FORMER RESIDENT OF DECATUR—A telegram received here to-day from Springfield, announces the sudden death in that city of Mr. D W. Aholtz, who formerly lived here. It seems that he was at the fire on the occasion of the burning of the rolling mill there, and that a falling board hit him on the head. His injuries were not supposed to be serious at the time, but as he was found dead yesterday morning it is supposed he died from the effects of the injury inflicted by the falling board or plank We understand that the deceased was a brother of Fred Aholtz, of this city.

ANOTHER IMPROVEMENT W. F. Busher & Co., the boot and shoe dealers, are making extra preparations for the spring and summer trade. This morning the work of putting in a new plate glass front was commenced, under the supervision of E McNabb. The counters in the store will be taken out, giving place to settees, after the style of cities of larger growth. Other improvements will be made, and the room will in a short time present a very attractive appearance.

A NARROW ESCAPE Last night Mr. Lamar Curtis, deputy yardmaster of the Wabash Railway Co, had a very narrow escape from serious injury or death.—When in the act of uncoupling cars he accidentally fell between two cars that were in motion, but as they were moving slowly he rolled out from between them soon enough so that the car wheel just brushed against one leg of his pants His lantern was caught under the wheel and broken

THEATRICAL.—Bulwer's tragical drama of "Richelieu" was presented to a large audience at the opera house on Saturday night Lawrence Barrett took the leading character and was well supported by an excellent company. A worthy notice of the performance would consume more space than we care to devote to that purpose. Barrett is always good. The company left for St. Louis on the early train Sunday morning.

PROF. RICHARD'S LECTURES.—We call special attention to the advertisement of the scientific lectures to be delivered by Wm. C. Richards under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, commencing on Monday evening, March 17th. This course of lectures will probably be one of the most interesting ever given in the city, and the low price of admission should crowd the house each evening.

New and handsome necklaces, lockets, sets and all kinds of jewelry just received at Curtis & Ewing's, the jewelers. Their stock is the largest and most complete of any in the state outside of Chicago. Go in and look at it, whether you wish to buy or not. mar10d3t w1

FOR ASSESSOR.—Under the head of announcements will be found to-day the name of Edward Hughes, Esq., as a candidate for township assessor. Mr. Hughes is well posted on the value of property in Decatur, and is, therefore, well qualified for the office for which he is announced. If elected he will make a fair and just assessment, uninfluenced by any consideration except the matter of actual values.

IN THE FIRST RANK.

The just reputation of Dr. Price's Unique Perfumes places them in the first rank of the very best handkerchief perfumes that have ever been made. Their odor is truly rich, fresh and flowery. Dr. Price has spent much time and study in perfecting these perfumes.

STILL IMPROVING.—Everybody will be glad to learn that little Claude Bell is improving daily, and while his physician does not regard him as being out of danger, he has strong hopes that the injured eye may be saved.

RELIGIOUS NEWS.

Rev. S. MacBurney's Farewell Sermon—Other Church Notes.

STAPP'S CHAPEL.

Rev. S. MacBurney delivered his farewell sermon last evening, in the presence of one of the largest congregations ever assembled in Stapp's Chapel. The ushers were compelled to bring in chairs from the vestry to accommodate the people who were kept standing at the entrance until the chairs were placed in position.

The services began by singing stanzas of the hymn commencing—

"Grace, 'tis a charming sound,
Harmonious to the ear,
Heaven with the echo shall resound
And all the world shall hear."

Then followed a long and earnest prayer by the pastor.

The congregation joined in singing the hymn—

"Blest be the tie that binds
Our hearts in christian love
The fellowship of kindred minds
Like unto that above."

The pastor took for his farewell text the words of St. Paul in the 14th verse of his second letter to the Corinthians, "The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God and the communion of the Holy Ghost be with you all. Amen."

The sermon throughout was one of marked solemnity, and while the pastor spoke with all his wonted eloquence and power, still he seemed to dread the end when he would be compelled to say good-by to his flock to whom he has ministered for nearly two years. In conclusion the pastor remarked that he had thought of giving expression on that occasion to a few harsh words that would strike home to the hearts of a few outside of the church, but he had concluded to stand in his pulpit as an earnest christian minister; and to all, including himself, he would say: "The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God and the communion of the Holy Ghost be with us all. Amen."

Two verses of "Shall we gather at the river?" were sung, and while all joined in singing "The Sweet By-and-By" the congregation and friends went forward, one after another, and gave MacBurney's hand a farewell grasp. The scene was very affecting, and was another evidence that the retiring pastor leaves the city taking with him the love and best wishes of his people and friends.

FIRST M. E. CHURCH.

Yesterday was a good day at the First M. E. Church. The classes were largely attended, the congregations were large, and the Sunday School numbered 359.—In the morning the pastor discussed "Christian Perfection," and at night his text was, "Is thy servant a dog that he should do this great thing?" The small beginnings and rapid growth of sin was the theme. Dr. Goodwin announced that he would begin next Sunday night to deliver a course of brief lectures to different classes of people. Next Sunday night he will address physicians, and the Sunday night following the lawyers will be addressed. The night services at this church will usually not exceed one hour in length.

JAMES CHAPEL.

Yesterday was a day of unusual interest at this church. In the evening the audience room was crowded to its full capacity, and the services, by Rev. Harden Wallsee, were of a deeply interesting character. The meetings will be continued through this week. During the progress of these meetings something over a dozen have been added to the church

U. B. CHURCH.

Very interesting services were held at this church last evening. Three persons united with the church, and the services will be resumed this evening.

FREE OF COST.

Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Hay Fever, etc, is given away in trial bottles free of cost to the afflicted. If you have a severe cough, cold, difficulty in breathing, hoarseness or any affection of the throat or lungs by all means give this wonderful remedy a trial. As you value your existence you can not afford to let this opportunity pass. We could not afford and would not give this remedy away unless we knew it would accomplish what we claim for it. Thousands of hopeless cases have already been cured by it. There is no medicine in the world that will cure one-half the cases that Dr. King's New Discovery will cure. BRUTAL.—The Maroa News complains that a farmer who does his trading there brought his wife to town one very cold day week before last, and left her sitting in the wagon for several hours while he visited the stores to do some trading and make himself comfortable by the warm fires. They should give the name of a man who would commit so brutal an act.

HE GAVE BONDS.—We find the following in the Springfield Journal to-day, referring to Saturday's proceeding in the United States District Court:

John Moffett, of Decatur, was also in the court to answer to a charge of robbing the mails. He is a postal clerk on the Illinois Central, and was bound over by the United States Commissioner at that point. He gave bonds for his appearance.

THE birds are singing in the trees, and house cleaning time is near at hand. It is now in order to inform our readers that J. S. Hand & Co. have a new and immense supply of wall-paper, window shades and fixtures, such as never before has been seen in this city. Call and see the big display before purchasing elsewhere.—First door west of the postoffice

E. B. Pratt went east lately with a large number of horses purchased in this market. They were shipped to Mr. Seth Pratt, a brother of E. B. The Litchfield (Conn.) Enquirer, of the 6th, says

Mr. Seth Pratt has had another arrival of thirty-eight fine horses, by car, from the West. Crowds of buyers are to be seen about his stables taking their pick of these splendid animals. We see by the Decatur REPUBLICAN that over $20,000 have been paid for horses in that place during the past few weeks

Capt. C. F. Emery, of Maroa, was in town on Tuesday, and made us a short call. Prof. Lutz's Concert.

Prof. Lutz has been among us for nearly five years, teaching our people the rudiments of music, and especially how to sing with good taste and expression.—While his labor has resulted in vast benefit to his classes, and to the community at large, it is a well-known fact to many of his friends that his compensation has not only been very meager, but far below the value of the benefit he has conferred upon the community. He now proposes a Grand Union Concert, in the preparation of which he has given much labor for several months, among the classes that take part in the same, and the Professor declares it will be the best of all the concerts that he has ever given in his life. If this is true the people of Decatur may confidently expect a rich and rare musical treat; for to improve on the concerts previously given by him was held by many almost impossible. Having in the past kept his word we should not doubt him now, but as citizens who share in the improving and pleasurable results of his labors, show our appreciation of the same by crowding the tabernacle to its utmost capacity next Saturday evening. That all may be able to attend, the price of admission is only 25 cents. Reserved seats, 35 cents. to be had at W. R. Abbott's, Curtis & Ewing's and J. S. Hand's.

THE GIRLS.

Here is some excellent advice which we wish all the girls to read and remember. There is nothing lovely about a girl who is unkind to her mother, and we sincerely hope, if you have a mother to love, that you will always treat her with kindness

Have you a father? Have you a mother? Do you love them? Girls, do you know the value of your mother? Nobody loves you, nobody will love you, as she does. Dot not be ungrateful for that love; do not repay it with coldness. Unloved and unloving you will live and die, if you do not love and honor your father and mother

Never call either "old man' or "old woman" It is too often a habit, in this country, for young people to name their parents thus This is rude, impudent and undutiful An aged person is an old man or an old woman

There should be something sacred, something peculiar in the word that designates parents The tone of voice in which they are addressed should be affectionate and respectful A short, surly answer from a child to a parent falls very harshly on the ears of any person who has a true idea of filial duty

Be sure, girls, that you each win for yourselves the name of a dutiful daughter. It is so easy to win that no one should be without it It is much easier to be a good daughter than a good wife and mother. A child's duties are much more easily performed than a parent's, so that she who is a good wife or mother, but she who fails in this first most simple relation need never hope to fill mother so well Be sure, then, that you are a good daughter It is the best preparation for every station and will be its own reward

The secret you dare not tell your mother is a dangerous secret and one that will be likely to bring you sorrow. The hours you spend with her will not cause you regret and you should never feel disappointed, or out of humor, for not being permitted to go to some place to which you wish to go You should love her so well that it would not be felt as punishment to give up the gayest party to remain with her

Nothing is more beautiful than to see a girl take off her things and sit smilingly down with her mother, because she wished it Go and kiss your mother as you used to do when a child, and never grow too large or wise to be a child, at her side

FRIENDLY SUGGESTIONS

To Travelers, as well as to Those Seeking New Homes in the West.

The summer of 1878 will long be remembered by many on account of the extreme heat as well as the terrible plague that has visited certain sections of our country Therefore, if you are about taking a trip to the West either for pleasure or to look out a location for a New Home, seek to locate on (or nearly so) the same latitude in which you formerly lived. The reasons for this are many You will escape the severe climatic changes and fevers incident to North or South, consequently you will experience no poor health, which is a great draw drawback to the new settler, and in this way you become prosperous at once. The Hannibal and St Joseph Railroad is located upon the happy medium between North and South, running through the northern part of Missouri, where there is no plague or pestilence and upon which line thousands of happy settlers are located, and on account of the wonderful fertility of the soil together with the best of markets have become independent, and surrounded as they are with the best of schools and churches together with all the home comforts are a prosperous and happy people
